Happy New Year everybody!

I Just want to thank God for the safe trip I have had going and coming back from my vacation in the Democratic Republic of the Congo with my mother and the rest of the family in a town called Kinshasa. Let me tell you that it was one of my best of all vacations since I started going back down there.

My mother has just turned seventy by the end of this past year and I was glad to see her healthy and strong. That joy affected me as well to shine more while I was there. I visited with as many friends and relatives as I could. It was just a wonderful time to have with my family and I am looking forward to doing again in future.

Now back to work, in this issue, you going to see itinerary for missions, except Yakutat because Father Jim Win, OMI from Saint Louis, MO has offered to be there until the end of April. He is there already since Friday February 04, 2011.

I also want to encourage you to look at our diocese website www.dioceseofjuneau.org to be aware of many activities in Juneau and throughout the Diocese of Juneau, to know what is going on with our Catholic Church in Southeast Alaska and the rest of the world. It also an opportunity to check my travels schedules, the "On Mission" newsletter current and previous issues.

Please, note also the change of my email address! It is no longer jeanpaulin@hotmail.com. Please, do not use it anymore! Below, you find my current email addresses.

Thank you so much for your good work and support! May God bless each one of you!
